Response to Amendment

This action is in response to the request for re-consideration filed on 12/8/04.

As per applicant's request claims 1, 2 6-57 have been amended and new claims 58-60 have been entered.

As per applicant's request claims 1, 2 and 6-60 have been considered but they are not persuasive and stand rejected.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1, 2 and 6-60 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Chambers et al, "A Debate on Language and Tool Support fro Design Pattern" ACM POPL, January 2000, pp 277-289.

Regarding claims 1, 20 and 39

Chambers et al teaches,

- providing a plurality of design patterns having different types each of the design pattern comprising a description of design issues addressed by the particular design pattern and of a solution provided by the particular design pattern (page 277, column 2, 2nd paragraph, "a design pattern... in real system")
- receiving input defining a programming problem (page 280, column 1, 2nd paragraph item 3.2.1.1 " a language is a format... same with a pattern");

Art Unit: 2124

- determining a matching one of the types of design patterns based on the received input (page 278, column 1, first paragraph items 1-4, “they promote...class re-factorings”);
- providing a plurality of instances of matching type design pattern (page 278, column 2, first paragraph, “the choice... and which don’t”);
- receiving input indicating a selection of a member of the plurality of instances and returning the selected member of the plurality of instance (page 278, column 2, 2nd paragraph, “programming language designers... design pattern is simply...”).

Regarding claims 2 and 6-60

Rejection of claims 1, 20 and 39 is incorporated and further cited reference teaches directly or indirectly the claimed limitations, therefore claims 2 and 6-60 are rejected under same rationale.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.

Art Unit: 2124
